In order to maintain your membership, we will also need: proof of insurance for current liability and / or worker compensation coverage. If you are not required by local regulations to carry WC, please provide proof of exemption or proof of sole proprietor status. A simple statement via email is accepted. If you wish to obtain a current membership standing, we need to have this data on file. Please submit copies of insurance at your earliest availability. You can either email to this email address or fax to 603-314-5385. As a helpful tip, if you want to name TCIA as a certificate holder with the contact information in my signature, this will alleviate you from needing to update your current certificate of insurance with us annually; your provider will just send it to us automatically.
